

POINT BY POINT PATTERN Argumentative Essay Outline
University Transfer Courses

POINT BY POINT
PATTERN
Argumentative
Essay Outline

Tentative Essay Title:

Your title should capture the essence of the essay

Part I. Introduction

Introduce your Topic:

Provide background information regarding your topic

Thesis Statement:

A thesis statement clearly articulates your position/argument

Part II. Supporting Arguments

Opposing Point #1 + Rebuttal 1

Body Paragraph 1 Topic Sentence:

State an objection to your argument

Body Paragraph 1 Supporting Points:

Present evidence in favour of your argument

1.

2.

3.

Body Paragraph 1 Concluding Sentence:

Reaffirm your argument

Opposing Point #1 + Rebuttal 2

Body Paragraph 2 Topic Sentence:

Restate the objection to your argument

Body Paragraph 2 Supporting Points:

Present more evidence in favour of your argument

1.

2.

3.

Body Paragraph 2 Concluding Sentence:

Transition to second opposing point

Opposing Point #2 + Rebuttal 1

Body Paragraph 3 Topic Sentence:

Body Paragraph 3 Supporting Points:

1.

2.

3.

Body Paragraph 3 Concluding Sentence:

Opposing Point #2 + Rebuttal 2

Body Paragraph 4 Topic Sentence:

Body Paragraph 4 Supporting Points:

1.

2.

3.

Body Paragraph 4 Concluding Sentence:

Opposing Point #3 + Rebuttal 1

Body Paragraph 5 Topic Sentence:

Body Paragraph 5 Supporting Points:

1.

2.

3.

Body Paragraph 5 Concluding Sentence:

Opposing Point #3 + Rebuttal 2

Body Paragraph 6 Topic Sentence:

Body Paragraph 6 Supporting Points:

1.

2.

3.

Body Paragraph 6 Concluding Sentence:

Part III. Conclusion

Restate your Thesis:

Larger Implications of your Argument:

Try to leave your readers with something to think about

On a separate page, write your References (APA), Works Cited (MLA) or Bibliography (CMS).

For additional help, please book an appointment with the Writing and Learning Centre (WLC) at <https://alexander.mywconline.com/>.